

~Harper College Proudly Presents~

Jane Thierfeld Brown, Ed.D.
Co-Director
College Autism Spectrum

Dr. Jane Thierfeld Brown is Director for Student Services at the University of Connecticut School of Law and Co-Director of College Autism Spectrum, an organization which provides supports for students on the Autism Spectrum and their families, as well as the schools and colleges they attend. She has 30 years of experience working in the field of disability services. Her main research interests are students with Asperger's Syndrome in higher education and students with disabilities in high-stakes graduate programs. As Co-Director of College Autism Spectrum, she uses the knowledge she has gained through her research to help students with Autism Spectrum Disorders explore and navigate college options before and throughout the college process. She is the author of A Professional Guide to Students with Asperger's Syndrome.

Community Seminar

Tuesday, September 14, 2010

7:00 - 9:00 pm

in the

Harper College Performing Arts Center

Dr. Brown will be presenting on college life, transition to work, and life adjustments, with Q&A to follow afterwards.

This is a free event and no RSVP is required.

For more information call the Harper ADS Office at (847) 925-6266.

This guest speaker hosted by:

Harper College®
Access and Disability Services

